A fire, which originated in J. M. Longwell's hotel, Kokomo, Col., by the explosion of a lamp destroyed not only the hotel, but the greater portion of the place. A short telegram saying, "Badly disfigured but still in the ring," from Mr. Longwell to his brother George is all his friends here have learned concerning the loss.

Nebraska officers, when in pursuit of fugitives, travel on foot.

Governor Jerome has appointed Hon. J. J. Woodman, of this county, as one of the delegates from this state to the Mississippi River Improvement Convention.

Della Wheeler, of Arlington, is a prize for some young farmer. She dragged in twelve acres of wheat one day this fall. Another Arlington girl cut three acres of buckwheat in one afternoon.

Ed. Chamberlain, of unsavory memory in connection with the Jarvis robbery, is wanted for attempting to murder his wife and child and shooting and severely wounding a man at Benton Harbor. He is a villain.

The annual meeting of the Library Association, for the election of officers, will be held on Monday evening, Oct. 24, at the Probate office. J. E. DREW, Pres.

A. J. MILLS, Sec'y.

Willis Smith, who was arrested as a fugitive from justice from the state of Nebraska, was discharged from custody on Wednesday last, on account of the non-arrival of a requisition from the Governor of Nebraska.

K. W. Noyes commenced work Thursday morning on his eighty acres of land lying just east of Irvington. He will make a clean job of it, intending to get the most of the land into crops another season.—South Haven Sentinel.

The Paw Paw correspondent of the Decatur Republican was a little off when he pronounced L. W. Beals' short horn bull calf "a fine specimen of a thoroughbred Hereford heifer." Your cot., Mr. Ed., is evidently not up in stock breeding.

"Fenner" has gone to Chicago to take in the exposition. As he had five big silver dollars, and his fare is but $2.75, he will have a "big bust." His position in the NORTHERNER office is filled temporarily and acceptably by Bert Greene.

The annual meeting of the Antwerp Mutual Protection Association will be held at the Richmond school house, on Monday, Oct. 31, 1881, at 6:30 p. m.

PETER HARWICK, Pres.

J. C. GOULD, Sec'y.

The Annual Meeting of the Almema Mutual Protective Association will be held at the Palmer school house, in district No. 5, on Monday, the 31st day of October, at 6 p. m., for the election of officers, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before it.

C. B. PALMER, Clerk.

We have reliable information that the Secretary of the Board of County School Examiners says there are two teachers in the South Haven school and two in the Paw Paw school who will not pass examination. Is it not rather early to decide those matters before examination is had?

A meeting of the Bar of this county is projected the first night of the coming term, at the Dyckman House, to take measures to form a Bar Association. Some pleasant exercises are expected in the way of remarks from the members, and a presentation to Judge Hawes on his retirement from the Bench.

One evening last week Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Loveland were pleasantly surprised by a number of their friends, who came in to remind them of the fifteenth anniversary of their wedded life. A pleasant time and a good supper was enjoyed by all. The nice crystal presents presented to them are highly appreciated by the recipients.

Willis Smith, of Lawton, was arrested and brought before Justice Galligan and held on a charge of stealing a span of horses, buggy and harness of H. M. Arnold, of Grand Island, Neb., who keeps a livery stable at that place. Young Smith went west with people about a year and a half ago. He returned to Lawton a few weeks ago and got married. When arrested by McCabe he was about to move east.

The case of the People vs. Henry Howland, has been tried and re-tried many times in our village during the past few days, by self-constituted juries, and all sorts of verdicts have been rendered. Some juries have been unanimous in convicting the accused of murder most foul, others of manslaughter; some juries have disagreed, and others have acquitted and voted their thanks to the prisoner. Meanwhile Howland languishes behind the prison bars.

The insurance losses by the recent fire in this village have all been adjusted and paid. Mr. Broughton was paid the sum of $1115, viz.: $500 on his new barn, paid by the Pennsylvania; $100 on his old barn, paid by the Underwriters; and $515 on Clifton House, paid by the North America, Underwriters and Hartford. These losses all fell upon the Insurance agency of Q. W. Rowland, Esq., except $109 on the hotel, paid by the Hartford, R. O. Reebe, Esq., agent.

On Oct. 13, Mr. Nathaniel Fuller and Miss Jennie E. Sheldon, of Almema, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. J. H. Darling. The many tokens of kind regards by the guests in the form of rich and rare gifts were sufficient to fill two tables, and then claim a place on the organ; to set down, memory fails to recollect them, except 1 hanging lamp, 2 table lamps, silverware sufficient for a complete set, and fancy articles by the score.

Newspapers are seldom or never free from typographical blunders, but it would seem that one hundred and forty in one issue is putting it rather thick, especially when the paper is conducted by the Secretary of the Board of county school examiners. That however was the number which a casual examination of the two home pages of a recent issue of the Advance revealed, to say nothing of the promiscuous sprinkling of italic capitals throughout the sheet.

The troops forming the Yorktown battalion from this state met at the city of Jackson and went into quarters until Saturday last, when they left on the Fort Wayne R. R. with two trains, one for the militia and the other for invited guests and passengers. The battalion was composed of a company of state militia from each of the following cities: Ionia, Adrian, Bay City, East Saginaw, Ann Arbor and Grand Rapids, and was commanded by Col. J. C. Smith.

At the adjourned regular meeting of the Paw Paw Fire Department, held on Thursday evening, Oct. 13th, it was moved and carried, that certificates of membership should be issued quarterly, (commencing on the 1st of Jan. 1882,) and that all members absent for three successive regular meetings should receive no certificate and have his name erased from the roll. Firemen, have compassion on our left-handed Secretary; turn out and have good lively meetings this winter.

A post of the Grand Army of the Republic will be established here this Friday evening, to be known as Broadhead Post. The following is a list of the officers: Post Commander, B. F. Heckert; Senior Vice Post Commander, C. P. Rawson; Junior Vice Post Commander, Jas. Bullard; Adjutant, M. U. Richardson; Quartermaster, F. E. Stevens; Surgeon, L. C. Woodman; Chaplain, J. J. Sherman; Officer of the Day, H. W. McCabe; Officer of the Guard, Thos. J. Chaffee; Quartermaster Sergeant, A. W. Cummings; Sergeant Major, E. A. Crane.

Charles F. Harrington, of Port Huron, has presented the State Librarian, to be hung in the library, a large and elegantly framed portrait of "Martha Rod," an old Indian woman, who was well known to many of the citizens of St. Clair county, and who at the time of her death was supposed to be 115 years old. It is pronounced by the donor to be a finely executed representation of the original, and will no doubt continue to adorn the walls of the state library long after a single vestige of the race to which she belonged can be found within the borders of our state.

With this issue of the TRUE NORTHERNER the paper has been under our management one year. And, although the paper has not been at all times what we desired to make it, we have received a liberal patronage from its friends, and have been able to show our enemies that it would not die on our hands the first year. Our advertising and subscription list have increased and are in a much more healthy condition than when we took the office. Those of our subscribers who find their paper marked with an X may know that nothing has been paid on it during the year, and we wish you to give it your prompt attention. We desire to have our subscribers pay once a year for their paper. The publication of a newspaper is attended with great expense, and although your indebtedness may be small you must recollect you are one of several hundred. The prompt payment of what you are owing for the paper at this time will be highly appreciated by us.

Van Buren county is becoming quite noted for its tough, wiry old men who suffered the hardships and toll of pioneer life that this county might blossom like the rose. We had the pleasure of meeting one of them the other day at Dowagiac, who lives near Lawrence, and is named Reuben Root. Reuben keeps a pretty good team, and is quite fond of fast driving. He has not only helped clear up this county, but his patriotism forced him into the army of the late war. He went all through with Custer, was in the Shenandoah Valley with him, and pronounces him a good one. He says "a man who was under Custer would never draw his words afterwards." He has repeatedly taken four ounces of quinine every four hours under the prescription of a prominent M. D. of this county and is not dead yet, only a little deaf is all—"like an old soldier." Reuben is also sound politically, and we judge is made of the same material as Henry Ward Beecher's old maid. May he live to become an hundred years old.
